Weddings

Mr. and Mrs. Dana Moore of 198 Olney avenue are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Audrey, to Albert E. Wilkinson, boatman's mate 1/c, son of Mrs. Lillian Cloia of Thompson street. The double ring ceremony was read Feb. 23 in the Petworth Baptist church in Washington, D. C., by Rev. James P. Rodgers.

The bride, given in marriage by Leonard Maddox, wore a soft grey wool suit with which she combined white accessories. Her corsage was an orchid and lilies of the valley. Her hat was a halo of imitation white flowers with a shoulder length veil. Her only attendant was Miss Violet Cowne of Washington, D. C. She was attired in a gray wool suit with black accessories and a corsage of tallman roses.

Attending the groom as best man was Archie Warnock Jr., also of Washington, D. C.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride at 442 Buchanan street in that city. When the couple left on a wedding trip to New York and other points of interest, Mrs. Wilkinson was wearing a navy blue suit with navy and white accessories. Upon their return, they will reside temporarily at the home of the bride.

Mrs. Wilkinson is employed with the Office of Chief Engineers, War Department in Washington. Boatman's mate Wilkinson is stationed at the Navy Yard at Philadelphia, Pa.

Friends of the couple attending the ceremony were Mrs. Leonard Maddox, Miss Jackie Allen, Miss Dorothy Cruse, Miss Ella Booth and James N. Dalton, seaman 1/c.
